

Civil Aviation

The Civil Aviation Team at The SPECTRUM Group (TSG) provides aviation advisory services to governments, civil aviation authorities, airports, airlines, and private equity investors. We provide project finance, security, technical, strategic planning and strategic management advice for domestic and international companies and governments.

Our Civil Aviation Team is comprised of experts with backgrounds in regulatory compliance and civil aviation, the NTSB, law enforcement agencies, homeland security, and the U.S. military services.

We support our clients in projects across the full spectrum of safety, security, regulatory and compliance needs, including due diligence, audits, assessments, training, management, and implementation.

In addition, we facilitate liaison and advocacy with key decision-makers in Congress and in federal agencies, including the FAA, DOT, TSA and OSHA. We provide clients large and small with the tools, support and advocacy needed to help them meet their business goals.

Our mission is our clients' success. Visit our website to learn more and to meet our Civil Aviation team: www.spectrumgrp.com.
